HOUSE MEMORIAL NO. 914—A Memorial to the Congress of the United States, requesting the Congress to allow the fourth extra cent tax per gallon on gasoline, known as "an emergency tax," to expire on June 30, 1961.

WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States did, in 1959, impose an extra fourth cent tax per gallon on gasoline, which was deemed an "emergency tax," and

WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States did state that this was only a "temporary, emergency tax," which should terminate on June 30, 1961, and

WHEREAS, President Kennedy said in his message to Congress, the "passenger cars are paying more than their fair share" of the cost of the forty-one thousand (41,000) mile super-highway network, and

WHEREAS, More than thirty per cent (30%) of the automobiles now being sold are economy cars, which seems to indicate we have about reached the "point of less return" on excessive gasoline taxes, and

WHEREAS, a study made by the United States Bureau of Public Roads indicates that there are real and extensive beneficiary groups other than highway users, and

WHEREAS, The Federal Tax of four cents (.04¢) added to the state tax of seven cents (.07¢) means that gasoline is taxed eleven cents (.11¢) per gallon, a retail sales tax of more than fifty per cent (50%), which is far higher than any other necessary commodity, luxuries being taxed only ten per cent (10%), NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA:

That the Congress of the United States is requested to keep this promise made to the users of gasoline, which is a common necessity, and to let this fourth extra cent tax die by limitation on June 30, 1961.
